

Light visions

Ariana Ananda Muresan

Intrinsic flow
of water currents
Intrinsic noise
of restless minds

Light visions crawl
In your rear-view mirror
Clandestine and small
Your name no more

Restrained and shy
Construction blocks
Your cry

Light vision are you there?
Entangled in the wires of my heart?
Are you pacing down the alley of my soul?
Have you found the keys to my passenger door?

Trapped in your trunk
Fuel running low
The dent in your pride
I am there no more.
